ANY MAN WHO PROPOSES TO UNDERSTAND
all trades and sciences, assumes to impose an abridgment upon the public. On the same principle, any medicine which professes to cure all diseases, is unworthy the slightest confidence, and should at once be denounced as a quack nostrum. The Greenberg Family Medicines do not assume to cure all diseases with one remedy. They have eleven different medicines, each adapted to its peculiar disease;

tainty of these preparations. Their list comprises the following

FOREIGN NEWS!

By the arrival of the clipper ship Gaspard, Capt. Merrill, and the clipper bark Yankee, Capt. Lovett, both from San Francisco, the former in 18 days and the latter in 17 days, we have received New York dates to April 8, European via Liverpool to March 26, and San Francisco to May 4.

We will follow the interesting news from our files:

United States.
FROM GREAT SALT LAKE CITY, APRIL 9.—On the 4th inst., the U. S. District Court for the Second Judicial District, which has been sitting at Provo City since the 8th of March, adjourned sine die. Judge Cradlebaugh will hold a court at Camp Floyd, as committing magistrate. Four persons that were held in custody for examination, were removed to camp under guard of one thousand U. S. troops, marching out of Provo City to the tune, by a martial band of "the Girl I left behind me." The court pursued by Judge Cradlebaugh in surrounding his court by a force of the military and using portions of the same as a posse, has been a subject of much discussion in this city. The Executive of the Territory protested against the movement, which protest was disregarded by the Court, and it now remains for the Federal approval as to the course of the respective officers.

In the remarks of Judge Cradlebaugh upon the adjournment of his court, the following extract from the report, I copy: "This Court has sought diligently and faithfully to do its duty; to administer the laws of the United States and of this Territory. It could not have any other object. But, at every turn, it has had to encounter difficulties and embarrassments. Men high in authority in the Mormon church, as well as men holding civil authority under the Territorial Government, seem to have conspired to obstruct the course of justice, and to cripple the earnest efforts of the Court. The whole community presents an united and organized opposition to the proper administration of justice, and every art and every expedient have been employed to cover up and conceal crimes committed by Mormons. Witnesses have been prevented, by threats of violence, from obeying the summons of the Court; others that have testified, have been driven to seek safety in the protection of the troops stationed near here, who, it is proper to say, are here on the requisition of the Court, and for whose presence the Court is responsible. The absolute necessity of having these troops here has been fully demonstrated by all that has transpired during the session of the Court."

This Court determined, as its action manifests, that it did not intend to be used by this community for its protection alone, but that it will do justice to all, or it will do nothing. Not being able to do this, the Court now adjourns without delay."

New York, Aug. 8.

The correspondent of the San Francisco Bulletin writes:

Intelligence was received here yesterday from Montevideo via Pernambuco, conveying the agreeable intelligence that our difficulties with Paraguay have been amicably adjusted, Lopez having agreed to pay an indemnity to the family of the man killed on board the Water Witch, and to the American company of which Mr. Hopkins was agent. This peaceful settlement of this disagreeable affair was brought about in no small degree through the friendly offices of President Urquiza, of the Argentine Confederation, and it is his report thereof that has given us the first knowledge of the facts.

The following, from our Panama correspondent, are the movements which preceded and led to this gratifying result:

SETTLEMENT OF THE PARAGUAY QUESTION.
PANAMA, April 16, 1859.

The most important news I have to send you is the settlement of the question between Paraguay and the United States. President Urquiza, of the Argentine Confederation, it appears, went to Asuncion and smoothed the way for a settlement. At any rate, he takes to himself almost all the glory of the achievement.

BASES OF THE SETTLEMENT.
The bases of the settlement is thus repeated by the Confederation, printed at Rosario:

As yet no publication has been made of the convention celebrated between Paraguay and the United States, and its bases are entirely unknown. In face of such scrupulous secrecy, it would appear imprudent in us to venture surmises; but we are enabled to do so by the kindness of a friend in Corrientes for some brief notes, which we reproduce without guaranteeing, and merely to satisfy the curiosity of our readers. According to our informant, it appears that the four points of negotiation were resolved, more or less, in the following manner:

1st. The Government of Paraguay will offer satisfaction to the United States, by means of an official commission, for the shots fired by its batteries against the Water Witch.

2d. The Government of Paraguay obliges itself to indemnify citizens of the United States for losses sustained in its territory. The amount of this indemnity to be fixed by a commissioner appointed by the United States, another by Paraguay, and a third chosen by both of these. In case a third appointment should not be agreed upon, it shall be made by the Ministers of the foreign legations residing in Washington, where the affair will be finally settled. The maximum of this indemnity is fixed at $500,000, but on examination of the claims, the commission may reduce the amount. The sum decided upon shall be paid within nine months.

3d. All the conflicts of the rivers Paraguay and Parana will be declared open to the commerce of all nations, as also to all exploring ships of war.

4th. The treaty formerly celebrated between the United States and Paraguay, shall be ratified and extended.

We are assured that such are, more or less, the foundations of the adjustment celebrated; we will not answer for the truth of it otherwise than by stating that the person to whom we owe this information deserves our high respect.

The war editor of the Herald, under the influence, doubtless, of chagrin at the peaceful issue of the Paraguay affair, proposes that the returning fleet, so soon as it reaches home, should be dispatched to explode its bottled wrath upon ill-fated Nicaragua. It certainly is a great pity that so much good powder as this fleet took out with it should remain unwasted in the magazines of the ships, while the lazy greaser of Nicaragua is wandering, uncovered and unkempt, over those pleasant plains of Nicaragua which Jonathan covets so much. Pitch into them by all means. What rights have they which an Anglo-Saxon is bound to respect?

WASHINGTON, April 5.
The armed expeditions now being organized in New York, and other cities, with the ostensible view of emigrating to Arizona, will not be permitted to enter that Territory, special orders to that effect having been issued to the United States troops. The stopping of Col. Lockridge by Gen. Twiggs is sanctioned here, and similar orders have been extended to New Mexico, in order to prevent the entrance of these bands of marauders into that territory.

SHIP'S ACCOUNTS!
MASTERS OF WHALESHIP WHO DE- sire assistance in the making up of their accounts, will please call on the undersigned, who will give him immediate attention to business entrusted to him. Office at the "Sailors' Home." 30-1f

THE DEBTS (Paris) has the following remarks upon the debate in the English House of Commons on the navy estimates:

"The great fact to be remarked is the immensity of means commanded by the English navy. To add in a single year to the fleet 25 large vessels, of which 15 are line-of-battle ships, is an extraordinary exertion which England alone is capable of making, and which could not be executed by the dockyards of all the other powers of the world and new worlds, were they even to combine their efforts. The French steam fleet comprises splendid vessels, which can bear advantageously any comparison with those of England, and the First Lord of the Admiralty spoke perhaps with greater truth than he suspected when he admitted that fact in full Parliament; but he laughs at the public when he pretends that the number of these vessels causes him alarm. He is too well aware that in this respect England still possesses no rival."

The mails from Calcutta of January 22 reached England on the 28th Feb. The letters contain the complete pacification of Oude. Lord Clyde arrived at Lucknow on the 17th of January. Jang Bahadur had announced his readiness not only to drive out the Nena and the Begum, but his willingness to go himself upon the expedition. The correspondent of the London Times hopes by the next mail to announce the surrender of the Begum and the execution or suicide of the Nena.

No. 3.

The recent order to immediately fit out the new steamers is not with special reference to events in Nicaragua, but the design is to relieve vessels on the Pacific and other squadrons.

The despatches sent to Gen. Lamar are, it is represented, of the most positive character. They instruct him to demand from Nicaragua an apology, restitution and indemnity, (supposing the facts to be as represented) on a failure to comply with which he is to ask for his passports.

The Home squadron, it is said, will be strengthened, and the vessels placed at the disposal of Gen. Lamar, to use them for the defence of American citizens, their property and vested rights. The despatches to Flag Officers McCluney and Long, commanding respectively the Home and Pacific squadrons, are to be the orders of Gen. Lamar; failing to receive them, they are to exercise a latitudinarian discretion.

The usual diplomatic course has been pursued in informing the foreign Legations of the intention of this government.

NEW ORLEANS, April 6.—The lower Levee Press, with 10,000 bales of cotton contained therein, took fire with four squares adjoining, embracing 70 houses, have been burning since yesterday. The loss is nearly $1,000,000. The property destroyed is well insured here.

The European News.
Our summary of the latest news from Europe, and the letters of our correspondents at London and Paris, will be found highly interesting. Whether peace or war is to result from the present European difficulties, it is still impossible to say. Official dispatches and Ministers speak of peace, but the actual deeds of rival powers breathe only of war. From the menacing attitude of the immense armies in Northern Italy, hostilities may break out at any moment, even when the proposed Peace Congress is sitting at Aix-la-Chapelle, quietly discussing matters.

By the John L. Stephens we have telegrams from Halifax, N. S., bringing up European news to 20th March, three days later than the intelligence published in our last issue. Notwithstanding the fact of a Peace Congress, the political news from this arrival is of an unsatisfactory nature. Many disquieting reports prevailed, and the military armaments continued with unabated activity. An uneasy feeling prevailed in political circles in England in regard to affairs on the Continent. Consols had declined 1-2 since the last advance—
